EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

As the Environment Protection Agency (EPA) enters a new era of protecting our Nation's environment and human health, the Office of Environmental Information (OEI) plays a critical role in collecting, managing, and providing access to the environmental information needed for this mission. OEI's National Library Network (NLN) is a key factor in accomplishing this goal. Ace Info Solutions, Inc. (AceInfo) (b)(4)

We are very familiar with the NLN's composition of 26 locations in Headquarters, Regional and Field Offices, Research Centers, and specialized laboratories, as well as the Web-based access to electronic collections. To move EPA to the enhanced model envisioned, our solution is based on a time-tested and proven methodology. (b)(4)
